

ARE YOU OK?

"Nobody's perfect, but this is ridiculous..."

Jane Mumford's second solo show centers around her uncoolest years (to date), when she was 13 - 19. As if being the daughter of a British jazz-musician wasn't enough to single her out in the Swiss village where she spent her childhood, she decided to use her precious teenage years to become a goth - a tapdancing goth. She loved the dark brooding satiny world of gothic rock and new wave, but also had a penchant for 1950ies musicals and Gene Kelley in tight white sailor pants. For years she straddled two worlds so far apart that not even she could bring them together. "Are you ok?" is all about the lessons we learn in our teens, and how long it takes us to unlearn them again as grownups. Despite very specific circumstances she learnt a lot of valuable lessons that all of us "adults", as we call ourselves today, may find useful. Or at least: amusing.

Catch her at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival at Just The Tonic's Attic Room
@ 1:20 pm every day from 1.-11. August!

Facts:

Jane Mumford (*1988) is a half-Brit half-Swiss comedian. Her previous work has been in German mainly, and can be seen in Switzerland, Germany and Austria's stages, on radio and on tv. She's been part of the English stand-up scene of Switzerland since 2016. She's a trained 2d animator, plays the drums and sings (yes, at the same time if needed), tapdances, hosts live shows, radio and tv, and loves coming up with crazy concepts for events.
